Westerly's Spanish War Soldiers

Install Officers and Hear Patriotic Addresses—Babcock
Portraits Hung in Public Reading Room—Miss Fanny
Pendleton Stanton Dies at Stonington—Wife Eater
Sent to Jail.

The petition of Louis F. Bell for leave to intervene and claim lien in the case of the Washington Trust company of Westerly against the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Co. of Hope Valley, was heard by Judge Tamm in the superior court Friday, and decision reserved. There was an array of legal talent at the hearing, Frederick C. Olney appearing for Mr. Bell, C. M. Van Slyke for the Industrial Trust company as trustee of the Nichols & Langworthy Co., and Edwards & Angell for the Washington Trust Co.

The bill passed by the state senate, relative to the repudiation of the North Carolina bond gift and the acceptance of gifts to the state of Rhode Island was prepared by Senator Bowen of Providence, but the last half, which referred direct to return of the North Carolina bonds to the donors, was an adaptation of the act introduced by Senator Louis W. Arnold of Westerly.

Robert Brucker camp of United Spanish War Veterans, of Westerly, held one of the most interesting sessions Thursday evening since its organization. The business session was held in Red Men's hall, where these officers were installed, the ceremonial being witnessed by nearly all the members: Shelby C. Nicholas, commander; George Kenyon, senior vice commander; Herbert Taylor, junior vice commander; Daniel Harrington, officer of the day; John Moriarty, officer of the guard; Henry Sutcliffe adjutant; Arthur N. Nash, quartermaster; Henry Sutcliffe, trustee for three years. The officers were installed by Department Commander Arthur C. Lake, with Arthur B. Spink of Providence as master of ceremonies.

After the installation there was a supper and social session in Hibernian hall, at which remarks were made by officers, members, visiting comrades and special guests. There were talks for the good and welfare of the organization and the part it must take in the future in the perpetuation of patriotic principles, proper tribute to comrades who have joined the silent army, and a strict observance of Memorial day. These talks were tinged with the humorous side of camp life, in which some of the speakers told of their experience and also the experience of others present, and which were the occasion of much merriment.

Six portraits of local and general historical interest, the portraits of the Babcock family, of which Edwin Babcock of Westerly, now in his 91st year, is the oldest living member, were placed in the reading room Thursday afternoon. The portraits are of Chief Justice Joshua Babcock, 1767-1783, from a portrait by J. Blackburn of London, 1757, owned by Rev. S. S. Matthews of Roxbury, Mass. Mrs. Hannah Stanton-Babcock, wife of Joshua Babcock, 1714-1773, from a portrait by Blackburn, London 1757, owned by Rev. S. S. Matthews. Mrs. Luke Babcock, wife of Rev. Luke Babcock, and daughter of Thomas Cranston, Esq., from the portrait by Copley belonging to Daniel Berkeley Updike of Boston. Mrs. Thomas Cranston (Mary Coggeshall), mother of Mrs. Luke Babcock, from the portrait of John Singleton Copley, belonging to Mr. Updike.

Mrs. Adam Babcock (Abigail Smith) from the portrait by Copley owned by Rev. E. A. Blake, D.D., of Boston. Adam Babcock, son of Joshua, from the portrait by Copley, and in the possession of Rev. Dr. Blake. Adam Babcock was born in Westerly and when he resided in New Haven was the original complainant in the celebrated "Leather Breeches suit" against Phineas Stanton, Jr., of Stonington. The breeches in controversy were worth thirteen shillings. The suit and others growing from it were continued in the courts for nine years. The final result was in favor of Stanton, who said the case had cost him $2,000 more than he received, which was a fortune in those days.

Miss Fannie Pendleton Stanton died Thursday morning in Stonington.

New Milford.—The high school has been closed owing to the fact that many of the teachers are ill with mumps, and Superintendent Pettibone has been unable to secure substitute teachers who can carry on the work.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, WILLIMANTIC.

Reports Read and Officers Elected at Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the First Baptist church of Willimantic was held Thursday evening and following the reading and acceptance of the report, which showed the various societies of the church to be in good condition, the report of the treasurer of the board of trustees disclosed that the total receipts for the year were $4,651.36, total expenditures $4,471.16, leaving a balance of $178.20. These officers were then elected: Clerk, W. N. Potter; treasurer, James G. Robinson; trustees for three years, Ira P. Sweetland, Charles L. Crane and Albert H. Fryer; deacon for three years, S. B. Doolittle; second assistant superintendent, Miss Ethel Whitman; secretary and treasurer, James G. Robinson; librarian, Douglas Fryer; superintendent home missionary department, Mrs. Henry Fryer.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting and Election Thursday Evening—Banquet Coming.

The Willimantic Business Men's association held its annual meeting on Thursday evening in the rooms of the Board of Trade. Various reports were accepted, that of the treasurer showing a balance of $130.86. Two new members were voted in. These officers were elected: President, John E. Brick; vice president, J. C. Tracy; secretary, A. N. Coggeshall; treasurer, C. R. Alford; collector, Henry Fryer; board of directors, H. Dion, D. P. Dunn, C. S. Riedorf, Henry Blanchette Jr., F. D. Jordan, H. C. Murray, E. J. Hunt, E. F. Whitmore, A. N. Faughn, P. Moriarty and J. O. Cartier. It was voted to hold a banquet in the near future and arrangements were left to the board of directors.

This committee on consolidation with the Willimantic Board of Trade was appointed: Frank Larrabee, E. F. Whitmore and John E. Brick. After the meeting had adjourned the committees from both organizations held a session and the sentiment tended to show that consolidation was hardly desired at this time.

Board of Trade Banquet.

The board of directors of the Willimantic Board of Trade held their meeting Thursday evening and voted to have a banquet some time before March 15. This committee to confer with a similar one from the Willimantic Business Men's association was appointed to consider the consolidation of the two organizations: H. C. Murray, Walter B. Knight and Dr. C. E. Simonds.
